A VALUABLE GIFT

We students of a Catholic college seldom stop to consider the value of the faith which our parents have attempted to safeguard by sending us to this Catholic institution.

Surrounded by this Catholic feeling, we are not exposed to the false and diverse philosophies taught in secular colleges. Conversely, we are shown these philosophies and the errors inherent in them and are taught the one true philosophy of life.

Every year however, otherwise devout Catholic young people ask themselves if it wouldn't be just as good to continue their education at a school where the name of God is hushed into silence, where they "wouldn't have to take Religion." These doubts usually arise in the student's mind upon graduation from high school or while he is already attending a Catholic college, where he feels the teaching is "too one-sided."

Those who choose a secular school delude themselves with the idea that they can make up for a Catholic education by extra reading or attending special religious exercises. They feel that they have had enough Religion in grammar and high school to refute erroneous teaching.

But the question is much deeper than merely being forced to take a course in Religion, frequently false philosophy permeates all subjects in the secular institution. On this subject a University of Montana professor even flaunts "the first thing we do is to break the student's religious beliefs, his economic beliefs, and his political beliefs."

In the beginning, a Catholic student at a secular college will raise objections when overt attacks are made against his faith. But in the majority of cases he will soon discover that he is no match for his professor and, for fear of exposing himself and his faith to ridicule, he will listen in silence.

COMMENCEMENT, 1953

of
Saint Michael's College
Winooski Park, Vermont requests the honor of your presence at its Commencement Exercises*

Most Rev. Bryan J. McEntegart, fifth bishop of Ogdensburg, N.Y., will give the baccalaureate sermon for St. Michael's College Sunday, May 31.

Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.F., president of St. Michael's College, said Bishop McEntegart will speak to the 150 seniors and guests in Immaculate Conception Cathedral at Burlington.

Bishop McEntegart, noted as a pioneer in Catholic Charities work, has been called on frequently to serve the White House and other federal agencies.

FORDHAM PROF.

A native of New York City and a graduate of Manhattan College, Bishop McEntegart was ordained September 8, 1917 by Cardinal Farley. He took part in setting up Catholic Charities in the New York archdiocese and travelled throughout the country to help other dioceses organize and direct their charitable institutions. For 10 years he taught social work at Fordham University.

NCWC CHAIRMAN

For 21 years, he had charge of the Division of Children for the N.Y. archdiocese, supervising 73 children's agencies. Ever since his consecration in 1943, he has served as assistant chairman of the Legal Department of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

One of the country's top scholars, Dr. Roy J. Deferrari, secretary general of the Catholic University of America, will give the Commencement address June 1, for St. Michael's College at the Burlington Memorial Auditorium.

Dr. Deferrari, one of the leaders in the revitalizing of Catholic liberal arts colleges in the country, is a native of Stoneham, Mass.

He earned his bachelor's degree at Dartmouth in 1912 and his master's and doctor's degrees at Princeton. An authority in classical philology, Dr. Deferrari began his teaching as an instructor in the classics at Princeton in 1915. Two years later he joined the faculty at Catholic University, as an associate professor of Latin and Greek. In 1922 he became a full professor and from 1930 to 1938 served as dean of the graduate school of arts and letters at Catholic University.

In 1938 he became secretary general of the entire university. He has been director of the summer session since 1930.

Dr. Deferrari has written extensively on the classics and the Greek writers of the early church. He has published concordances of the works of Statius, Predentius, Ovid and Lucas.

In recent years he has attracted international at-

NATIONAL REPORT FAVORS ST. MICHAEL'S

"Only College Of Liberal Arts..."

Another distinction came to St. Michael's College this past week as it was cited as the only Liberal Arts College for Catholic men in the East to be recommended in the 1953 "Annual Report on Small Colleges."

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Edited by James W. Hampton and long a regular feature of "Good Housekeeping" magazine, the "Report" covers Liberal Arts Colleges with enrollments of fewer than 1200 students.

St. Mary's of California was the only other Liberal Arts College for Catholic men to be so honored by this privately published report which has been endorsed by colleges across the nation. The College of Notre Dame of Maryland was the only Catholic Liberal Arts College for women in the East to receive a similar citation.

The current issue of the "Report," published at Johnson City, Tennessee, features a pictorial section devoted to life on small college campuses, and an article, "How to Apply for Admission to College," by John M. Moore of Swarthmore College.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Colleges are chosen for recommendation on the basis of library facilities, endowment funds and quality of the faculty by an advisory board of regional consultants who aid the editors of the "Report," in Liberal Arts College recommendations.

St. Michael's College, founded in 1904 by the Society of St. Edmund, is the home of "The St. Michael's Plan," which has also received national recognition for its integrated four-year Liberal Arts program and two-year general education course.

St. Michael's is currently training some 400 cadets in the Air Corps Reserve Officer Training program which will enable students to train for a Reserve Commission while completing their college degree requirements.

The faculty has sixty members, two thirds of whom are laymen. President of St. Michael's College is Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, president of the New England Catholic Education Association.

With well-deserved pleasure Mr. Garrett, registrar and Fr. DuPont, dean of studies, examine a copy of "The Annual Report."

Centennial Pageant Readied For May 17

Some 2500 persons from 100 Catholic parishes in the state will take part in the historical pageant marking the centennial of the founding of the Burlington diocese.

The pageant will cover not only the 100 years of the development of the Catholic church since Champlain first saw the Green Mountains in 1609.

The pageant, sponsored by the Catholic Youth Organization of the diocese, directed by Prof. Henry G. Fairbanks of St. Michael's College, will be given at Centennial Field, Burlington, Sunday, May 17, and at the Rutland Fair Grounds, Sunday, May 24. Starting time is 2:30.

Seventeen colorful tableaux will depict such scenes as the capture and torture of St. Isaac Jogues, Jesuit martyr, the saying of the first Mass in 1666 at Isle La Motte, the visit of Benjamin Franklin to the state with Bishop Carroll on their way to Canada, and the departure of Ethan Allen's daughter, Fanny, for Montreal where she became Vermont's first nun.

A special tableau will be devoted to such other noted Vermont converts to Catholicism as the Barber family, Orestes Brownson, Stephen A. Douglas, the Barlow Sisters, Abby Hemenway, Rev. William Hoyt and Brother Ira Dutton.

The last five tableaux will be devoted to the five bishops of the diocese and the institutions developed during their administrations.

COLLEGE HELPING

St. Michael's will be represented by its 400 Air Force ROTC Cadets and its band, led by M. Sgt. Alexander Stone.

Several students are assisting Prof. Fairbanks in the staging of the pageants.

Several faculty members will also have important parts and many of our alumni have key assignments on the pageant committee, headed by Rev. Thomas H. Connor, State CYO director.

Script for the pageant is being written by Dr. Durick and Mr. Donoghue. Among the narrators will be Fr. Duford and Fr. Gopaul of St. Michael's and Father Fitzsimons of Trinity.

QUALIFICATION TESTS OPEN SOON

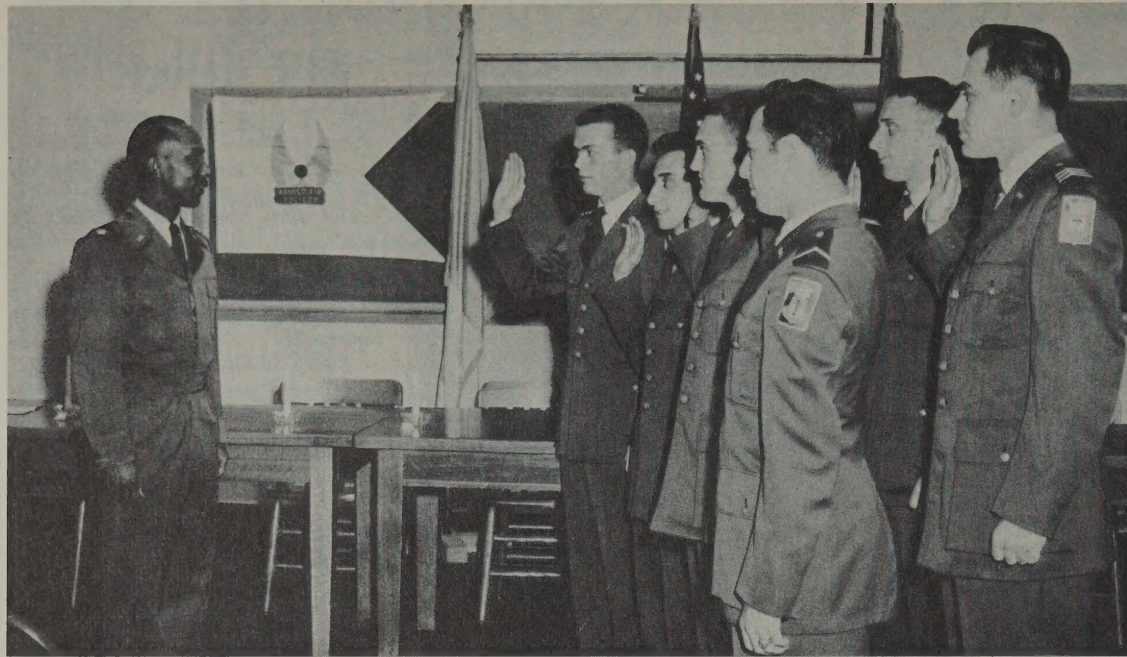

Selective Service National Headquarters announced today that it has authorized a special administration of the College Qualification Test on Thursday, May 21, 1953, for the benefit of students prevented by illness or other emergency from attending one of the regular administrations of December 4, 1952 and April 23, 1953.

May 21 is the last date upon which the College Qualification Test will be held during the present academic year.

Although applications postmarked May 11, 1953, or earlier will be accepted, students wishing to apply are urged to secure, complete, and mail their applications at once. Early filing will insure a test and other necessary supplies for the student at the center he selects or at a nearby center, according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test.

When filling in the application, available at Selective Service local boards, the student should cross out "April 23" opposite the space reading "Center No." and write in "May 21."

ARNOLD HONOR SOCIETY INITIATIONS

7 Members Join Ranks

The Arnold Air Society at St. Michael's College has seven new members.

Lt. Frank Delmerico, faculty advisor of the Chaplain John Verret squadron, said the seven were inducted at ceremonies at the college. It was the first induction at the college since the honor society was established a year ago at St. Michael's Air Force ROTC unit.

Cadets welcomed into the honor society were:

Cadet Capt. Roland Bourque, Lawrence, Mass.

Cadet Major Peter Chiacchieri, Roxbury, Mass.

Cadet Capt. Salvatore Leombruno, Glens Falls, N.Y.

Cadet Capt. A. Christopher Menadier, Rye, N.Y.

Cadet Lt. Carmine Parrella, Watertown, Mass.

Speaker at the ceremony was Major Jesse Ainsworth, base supply officer at the Ethan Allen Air Force base.

Other special guests invited included Alex Verret of Burlington, father of the chaplain and St. Michael's alumnus, for whom the squadron was named; Lt. Col. Jarvis R. Kingston, head of the St. Michael's A.F.R.O.T.C. department and other members of the detachment.

MISSION CRUSADE

A week ago Tuesday night the Mission Crusade held their final meeting of the year. It was the last meeting of the club to be presided over by Bill Doyle who has been president for the past two years.

Election of next year's officers took place at this meeting. Martin Walsh was named president. The other officers for next year are: Vice-President Dick Nolan, Secretary Joe McCann, Treasurer Dave Sevigny.

At the meeting plans were made for the annual Old Clothes Drive. The club asks all students who have usable clothes that they no longer need to place them in the box in their hall which will be provided by their hall representative.

Practice-Teachers "Try Their Wings"

Twenty-one St. Michael's College seniors are doing their student teaching this semester to fit themselves for high school teaching.

Prof. Thomas J. Moran, director of student teaching, said seven communities are cooperating this semester by giving students a chance to teach under supervision.

Five are in Vermont, while two students were given permission to practice in their home towns in Massachusetts. Students practice 90 hours during three consecutive weeks to meet state and college requirements.

Those teaching at Burlington Junior and Senior high are: Raymond Brault, (History) Winooski, Vt.; Thomas McElligott, (English) Holyoke, Mass.; Francis, Maloney, (History) Feeding Hills, Mass.; Erald Medlar, (English) Burlington, Vt.; Edward Millette, (Social Studies) Springfield, Mass.; Walter Nadolny, (History) No. Beltingham, Mass.; John Reardon, (English) Dorchester, Mass.

Those teaching at Winooski high are: Harry Brusa, (English) Northfield, Vermont; Christopher Carey (Mathematics) Benson, Vermont; Anthony DiStasio, (Science) Waterbury, Conn.; Paul Murphy, (English) Cambridge, Mass.; Gerald Zeno, (History) Winooski, Vermont.

At Milton High, the Michaelmen teaching are: Henry Lozewski, (English) Bristol, Conn.; Robert Parenteau, (French) Biddeford, Maine; John Wood, (History) Groton, Conn.

At Richmond high, the teachers are: Harold Daniels, (Social Studies) Winchendon, Mass.; Edward Shevlin, (English) Holyoke, Mass.

At Jericho high, the students are: Thomas Theberge, (Mathematics) Bennington, Vt.; Peter Zuk, (History) West Rutland, Vermont.

Louis Vanasse of Florence, Mass., did his practice teaching in English at Northampton, Mass., high.

Kenneth Casperson now living at "Miketown" on campus, did his teaching at his own high school, Drury High in North Adams, Mass.

N.F.C.C.S. Reports

Unlike most campus organizations, the work of the National Federation of Catholic College Students (NFCCS) does not end with elections or a convention in May 1, but continues with a National Congress to be held from August 25-30 in Cincinnati, Ohio and a clothing drive now being conducted by the Mission Crusade.

MAINE TO CALIFORNIA

At Cincinnati, delegates representing nearly 200 Catholic colleges and over 200,000 Catholic college students, from Maine to California, will assemble to draw up programs of activity, decide matters of policy, and elect national officers.

BOB WHITE, FULBRIGHT GRANT

Last year this Congress was held at the University of Notre Dame and one of the sponsors was the Most Reverend Thomas J. Toolen, bishop of Mobile, Alabama, and an honorary alumnus of St. Michael's College. St. Michael's was represented at Notre Dame by the Reverend Maurice U. Boucher S.S.E., moderator of the Mission

SENIOR AWARDS HIGHLIGHT BANQUET

Very Rev. Fr. Moriarty congratulates Paul Balcomb for his award of "The Most Outstanding Senior of the year."

Paul R. Balcomb, Watertown, Mass., senior was officially chosen "Mr. Michaelman of 1953," at the annual Senior Banquet held Wednesday evening in the College Dining Hall. He was chosen for his all-round, four-year academic and extracurricular performance at the Hilltop, by the senior members of the Student Council.

The award was made by Senior Class president, David M. Mullin.

Main speaker at the dinner was Dr. Jeremiah K. Durick, professor of English and 30-year alumnus of St. Michael's. He bade the Class of 1953 farewell with an original poem which he wrote after his graduation and which he said, "I have not recited to anyone since that time." Doctor Durick also said, "I am the only member of the faculty who at one time or other has had a chance to punish every member of the administration." During his career he has had every member of the college administration in class.

Rev. Lorenzo D'Agostino,

moderator of the Student Council, was toastmaster and proved to the seniors that even though he is also Dean of Men, that he does have a heart, when he was presented a "Dagger," symbolic of his office, by Owen J. Murphy, Jr., president of the Council.

Very Rev. Francis E. Moriarty, S.S.E., president of the college, paid special tribute to the graduates in saying that "If the spirit on any college campus is high, it is mainly because the spirit of the Senior Class is high. The spirit this year at St. Michael's has been marvelous, and therefore, I should like to congratulate and honor especially, this graduating Class of 1953." Father Moriarty also paid special tribute to Rev. Eugene Alliot, past president of St. Michael's and one of the founders of the college "who God has seen fit to spare to us for his counsel and guidance." The banquet was also attended by the faculty and every member of the administration.

Presentation of the senior award keys, made annually at the banquet to the "outstanding unsung hero members of the senior class," was made by Owen Murphy.

The keys were awarded to:

R.O.T.C. Band, Paul J. Kelly; Biology Club, Paul R. Kennedy Chemistry Club, Bernard R. Blais; Debating Club, David M. Mullin; Glee Club, Robert Parenteau; International Relations Club, John M. McGough; Knights and Knaves, Edward J. Daly; LANCE, Edward C. O'Gorman; MICHAELMAN, Ross D. Warren; Mission Crusade, Paul J. Kelly; Outing Club, Stanley I. Hayes, Jr.; Philosophy Club, Francis D. Foley, Jr.; Pen and Mike Club, Edward J. Freeley; Sociology Club, John J. Duggan; Sodality and C.C.D., Harry L. Brusa; SHIELD, Francis O. Hoben; Student Council, Francis D. Foley, Jr., and George C. Mitchell.

Up go this week, old "Jupe Pluvius" had refused to look with a kind eye upon the Athletic Department of St. Michael's. In fact, you could say he had been doing all in his power to drown the schedules of the spring teams. All season the Sailing Club has had to put up with little more than fair weather for its races, until finally the rain washed out a Quadrangular meet between St. Michael's, Babson, Middlebury and Vermont.

Football and Golf had no better fate. Their practice sessions have been continuously marred by rain or wet grounds. It has also upset the intramural softball campaign, postponing over ten games. The baseball squad was scheduled to open last Friday against Vermont but once again a downpour caused a change in plans. The Knight's tennis team saw their match with Champlain rained out, and played one against Vermont on courts surrounded by mud. During the latter one, Stan Albrow went back a little too far for a long shot and wound up knee deep in it.

But on Tuesday, the day of the Champlain baseball game, the weather began to take definite steps in another direction. All the squads still have pretty full schedules ahead of them so if "Old Jupe" will treat us right, there will be more to broadcast from this corner than a weather forecast.

DIAMOND CHATTER

We were sitting in the dugout with the team Tuesday while Champlain was taking its batting practice when the word came for John Sully, St. Michael's big right hander to get ready. Sully, who along with Bob Bolster takes pleasure in being a kind of team jester, glanced over at the Champlain batters, nodded to his battery mate John Barbati and disappeared behind the dugout. Before you could count ten, he was back again on the bench.

"All ready," said Sul.

A little persuasion and Big John was out again throwing his warm-up tosses to Barbati.

"You know," said Sully, "when I go to Pittsburg in a couple of years, I guess I'll have to take this guy with me," motioning toward Barbati. "He's the only one that can hold my knuckler."

"What happens when your arm goes," called someone.

"Then he's all washed up," replied the big hurler.

When Sully is standing at the plate, he doesn't consider himself a pitcher. He looks for those base hits, even though he couldn't buy one in the Champlain game. In the seventh inning, however, John reached first on an error.

"Be ready to move Sul, no double play," shouted Dick Giltrop.

"Not a chance," said Bolster, "Sully is the best man to have on there in case a double play presents itself, he's got them licked both ways. If he decides to slide, you'd never be able to throw a ball through the wall of

RH IV TAKES LEAD

By virtue of their 10-4 victory over Old Hall IV early this week, Ryan IV remained in the ranks of the undefeated and continued to lead the softball intramural league in its third week of play. Old Hall III, who up to this time was matching the Ryaners win for win, received a 12-0 setback at the hands of St. Leo's and dropped from a tie for first down to fourth place in the standings.

Besides the Ryaners, only two other teams in the 16 team league still boast of unblemished slates, the Faculty and the P.J.'s. Behind the pitching of "Doc" Lemaire, the Profs beat Old Hall IV last week by a 5-1 count. Their other win, a 12-5 conquering of College Parkway was marked by a grand-slam homer by Mr. Billups, which at the time broke up the existing 4-4 tie.

Rain washed out the early game of the P.J.'s, as it has so many this season, but in their only contest thus far, Joe Antone pitched the Pajamas to an 18-4 victory over Ryan Hall II. Ryan III moved up another rung on the ladder as they came from four runs down to eke out an 11-10 win over the Frosh from St. James. Previously St. James had hammered out a score of hits and stifled a late rally by St. Will's to capture an 18-13 win.

Sailing Team Ties Panthers

The St. Michael's College Sailing Club finished in a tie with Middlebury for second place in a Triangular meet won by Vermont this past weekend at Mallets Bay. In taking the meet and the mythical state crown that goes with it, U.V.M. totaled 20 points while the Knights and Middlebury racked up 17 apiece.

The "A" team captained by Len Frosina and with Andy Fisher as crew, won two out of their three races to garner 11 points for St. Michael's. Mike Seele and Jim Roche made up the "B" squad and compiled the remaining six points over the mile and a quarter course.

SEASON ENDS SOON

It was the third meet this season for the S.M.C. sailors, who had a Quadrangular meet with Vermont, Middlebury and Babson canceled a week earlier because of rain and cold weather. The Knights wind up the season this weekend down at Middlebury. Down there, the Panthers will play host to St. Michael's and Babson in a two day competition.

In the season's opener at St. Michael's field, the strong pitching of John Sully and a six run outburst in the eighth inning aided the SMC baseballers to whip Champlain College 10-2.

Sully gave up a run in the first frame when he issued three walks which, together with a bunt single, gave the Bluejays the lead. The only other base on balls the hurler granted after that came in the eighth and by then the Knights were ahead 4-2.

The Bluejays picked up their second run in a more authoritative manner when they clustered three singles for a run in the top half of the fourth. This finished the visitors' offensive for the afternoon as Sully shut them out with only a bunt single the rest of the way. "Big" John whiffed four Champlain batsmen, two in the last inning.

St. Michael's got a run in the first inning by virtue of three walks and an infield out. They didn't score again off the Bluejay chucker, Jake Kramer, until the seventh stanza. Three Champlain errors and a single to right by shortstop Ken Casperson put the Knights on top by a 4-2 count.

BIG EIGHTH INNING

The Purple and Gold broke the game wide open in the home half of the eighth, with a show of power that amounted to six runs. Lead-off singles by Dick Giltrop and John Barbati set the stage. Spreer reached first and Giltrop scored on an error by Dick Mille, the Champlain shortstop.

Artie Charlebois doubled home another run and Barry Hamilton followed this up with his second two base clout of the day. Hamilton scored

Golden Jubilee Class Presents --- A WEEKEND TO REMEMBER

Tonight's Junior Prom opens the doors to a week-end of activity.

Many hours of hard work have gone into the readying of the Champlain Country Club for the semi-formal Prom.

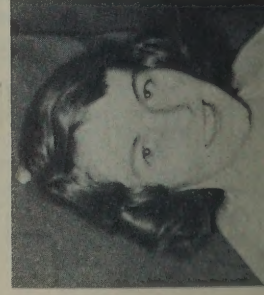

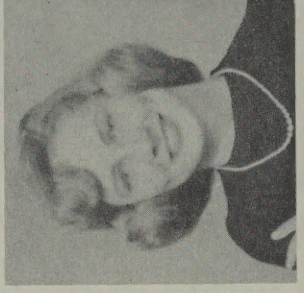

Decorations have been under the experienced hand of Lou Siclari, and he and the class officers and many other members of the Class of '54, have been burning the midnight oil in order to have everything in readiness.

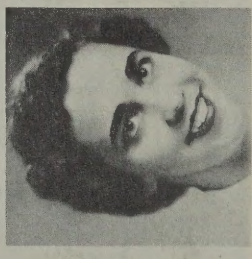

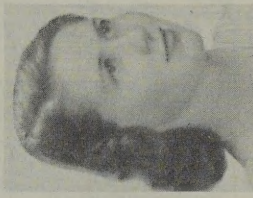

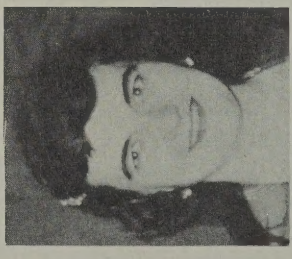

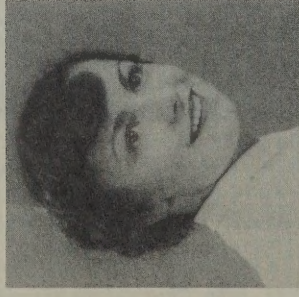

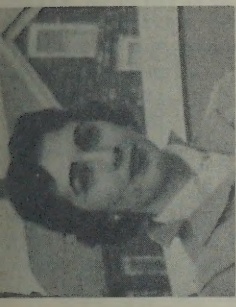

Reservations and the headaches accompanying them have been handled by Tom Nichols. Bob Leahy is responsible for the signs in the Ball Room and the construction of the bandstand, while Paul Dupont, and Red Lewis turned their talents to the refurbishing of the lounges.

Dartmouth College's 16 piece orchestra, "The Barbary Coasters," are furnishing the "mood" music.

Chaperones include, Professor and Mrs. Edward Murphy, Professor and Mrs. Thomas DeCaro, Professor and Mrs. Joseph Lovering and Professor and Mrs. A.P. Gianelli.

Saturday afternoon will find most of us at North Beach, where the picnic will take place. This affair was originally set for North Hero, but difficulties arose and a last minute bit of Political Science procured Burlington's North Beach. Refreshments will be served.

Jacky Howley

Saturday night will witness the "demothballing" of the side-wheeling "Ticonderoga." The venerable "Ti" will be packed with Michaelmen and their ladies fair for a moonlight cruise around Lake Champlain.

A four piece combo made up of members of Vermont's "Catamounts" and supplemented by the vocal renditions of the attractive Jackie Howley, will provide easy music for dancing (or just listening.)

Preparations Begun Sept.

By BILL LEVINS

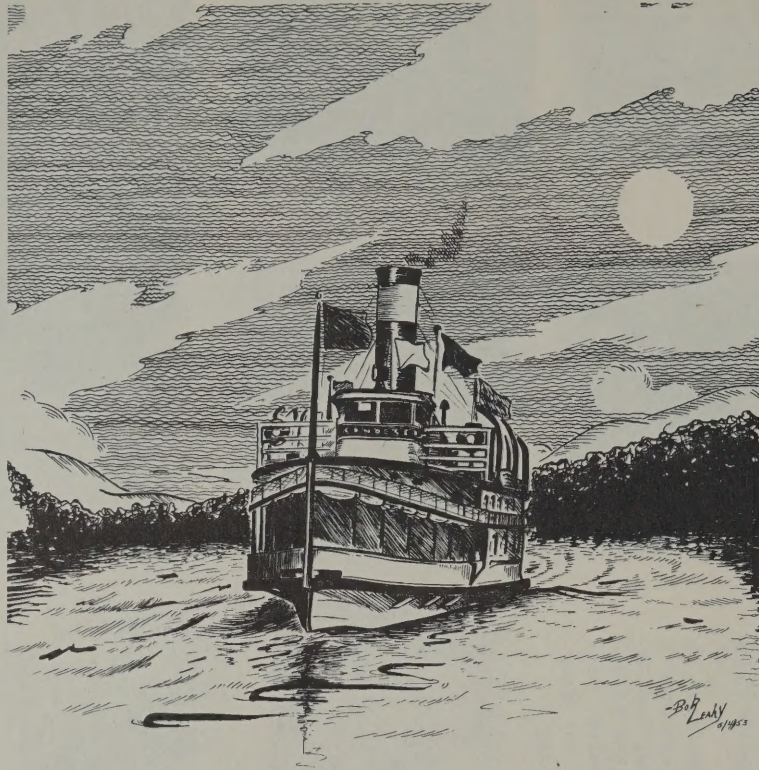

While the Junior Prom and Senior Weekend activities are mushroomed into a few too-short hours, it should be remembered that these few hours are the result of over seven months work.

8-MONTH PREPARATION

Way back in September of 1952 the Junior class officers held their first meeting and began to formulate plans for what they hope is to be St. Michael's finest Senior Weekend. Now that we are on the threshold of the long-awaited weekend, it does not seem out of order to make a hasty review of the events leading up to May 8.

THE GOAL SET

On September 22, while the thoughts of most of the student body revolved around the fast approaching football season, the eyes of the officers of the Class of '54 were riveted on a more distant, but tremendously important object, the Senior Weekend.

MEN FOR THE JOB

Present at the first official get-together were Pres. "Chick" Chiacchieri, Vice-President Red Levins, Secretary John Donohue and Treasurer Marty Walsh, along with the three Junior Class representatives to the Student Council, Jim McDonald, Paul Lavaley and Bob Nugent.

At the first meeting, the name of John O'Connor was nominated for the all-important job of Chairman for the weekend and was subsequently approved at an open class meeting.

THE "TI" IDEA

It was at this first gathering that the germ of an idea began to form regarding the use of the "Ti," but the plan was rejected. A three-man committee, O'Connor, Walsh and Levins, approached Lt. Col.

Those not able to be in the picture include John Crotty, publicity; Paul Kehoe, headwaiter and Bob Nugent, student council.

IN THE FIELD OF ENTERTAINMENT:

Trinity College

Festival, May 16

Preparations are in progress for the fourth annual inter-collegiate Choral Festival to be sponsored by Trinity College on May 16 at 8 p.m. under the direction of Miss Dorothy Hunt, head of the music department.

Trinity students are to be hostesses to students from St. John's University, Brooklyn; Regis College, Weston, Mass.; Rivier College, Nashua, N.H.; Salve Regina College, Newport, R.I.; University of Vermont and St. Michael's College.

The group from Salve Regina College is known as the "Queen's Choristers."

St. John's University Choir is sending 32 singers, and about 50 members of the music club will come for the concert. The director of St. John's choir, C.V. DePietto, will conduct the combined men's groups in Wilhousky's arrangement of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic."

A sextette from Regis College has prepared "Ave Maria" by Bottazzo; "España" by Woldtenfel; and "Stardust" by Carmichael. This will be Regis' first year of participation in the festival.

Revier is sending a double quartet. They will sing "Every Flower" from Puccini's "Madame Butterfly"; "Passage-birds' Farewell," "Hil-dach op. 14 no. 1; and Brahms-Piardot, "The Gipsies."

St. Michael's College Glee Club, under the direction of William Cofrancis, will sing "Drinking Song" from Romberg's "Student Prince." Cofrancis will conduct.

Miss Alberta Hogan of Trinity College, Burlington, in a scene from one of the forthcoming comedies, "A Phoenix Too Frequent."

The Knights and Knaves Dramatic Society of St. Michael's College, under the direction of Dr. Armando Citarella, will present a program of comedy for their Spring production on Monday and Tuesday nights, May 11 and 12.

The presentation will consist of two one-act plays: "The Boor" by Anton Tchekoff and "Phoenix Too Frequent" by Christopher Fry, two unusual productions very rarely performed. Both plays will be presented each night.

TWO LOVELY WIDOWS

"The Boor" is a hilarious social satire translated from a work by one of Russia's most famous comedy authors. "Phoenix," although it too has a humorous plot, is primarily notable for its beauty of language. Love is the theme of both, but each one deals with it from a different viewpoint and each one features the problems of a lovely widow.

"DRAMATIS PERSONAE"

In the cast of "A Phoenix Too Frequent," Edward O'Gorman will be Tegeious, Alberta Hogan, Dynamene and Doris Henry, Doto.

In "The Boor," Frank O'Handley will be Smirnov, Patricia Stancliff, Mrs. Popoff, and Donald McGael, Luka.

The curtain rises, Monday and Tuesday nights, May 11, and 12, at 8:15.

Tickets are $1.00 each, 50¢ for students.

Pierre Monteux, who will conduct the Boston Symphony Orchestra at the Burlington Memorial Auditorium on May 22, looks back upon a long and honorable career as one of the world's most eminent conductors in symphony, opera, and ballet. He has been a pioneer in each of these fields, first making known the music of such composers as Stravinsky and Ravel.

As principal conductor of the history-making Diaghilev's Ballet Russe, he conducted the first performances of Ravel's "Daphnis and Chloe," Stravinsky's "Rite of Spring," "Fire Bird," and "Petrouchka," and other compositions which have since taken their place in the permanent repertoire of the great symphony orchestras of the world.

Mr. Monteux has been the regular conductor of the French repertory at the Metropolitan Opera Company, associate conductor of the celebrated Concertgebouw in Amsterdam, and regular conductor of the Boston Symphony Orchestra and the San Francisco Symphony.

Last May Mr. Monteux shared the duties of conducting with Charles Munch when the Boston Symphony Orchestra made its first European trip in its 72-year history, conducting seven of the fourteen concerts in Paris, London, The Hague, Amsterdam, Brussels, Frankfurt, Berlin, Strasbourg, Metz, Lyons, and Bordeaux.

Mr. Monteux's technique of the baton is intended to achieve the maximum effect with the greatest economy of means. Every movement of the finger is designed to serve that purpose. The sweep of his arm is no wider than is necessary for an unmistakable indication - an unambiguous beat. While his attention is entirely upon the orchestra, the effect upon the audience is prodigious for the reason that nothing is more impressive than control both quiet and complete. The secret is, of course, that the real work has all been accomplished in the rehearsals. It is generally sensed that the miraculous sounds that are coming from the orchestra, the just balance of choirs, the exactitude of ensemble, and

COLLEGE STUDENTS PREFER LUCKIES IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

Nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals more smokers prefer Luckies than any other cigarette by a wide margin. No. 1 reason—Luckies' better taste. Survey also shows Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.

PROFS. CANERS & MURPHY HEAD SUMMER FACULTY

A Workshop in Guidance will be a special feature of the 15th summer session at St. Michael's College.

Dr. Jeremiah K. Durick, director of the session, said the workshop will carry six credits toward the M.A. in teaching. The session begins June 29, and ends August 7.

Prof. Leonard A. Caners and Prof. Edward F. Murphy will be directors. They will have the services of other special lecturers in the field of guidance.

SEMINAR EQUIVALENT

Attendance at the workshop is regarded as the equivalent of a seminar in completing preparations for the Comprehensive Examination this summer.

Prof. Caners who taught in Canada in primary and secondary schools before coming to St. Michael's has his master's degree from the University of Minnesota.

Prof. Murphy has his master of arts degree from St. Michael's and his master of education degree from the University of Vermont.

Crusade and the year before by a student, Bob White 52, then NFCCS Junior delegate, and now studying under a U.S. State Department Fulbright grant.

It is hoped that St. Michael's will again be well represented this year at the NFCCS National Congress.

CLUB DRIVES

In the clothing drive, the St. Michael's NFCCS unit collects used clothing from other Catholic colleges in New England, the Mission Crusade collects used clothing on our campus.

The Mission Crusade in turn sends the used clothing to the Southern Missions of the Society of St. Edmund where they are put to good use.

SMC ACTIVE

This year St. Michael's was once again active in the NFCCS. Delegates attended the Winter Council meeting at Providence College, the International Relations meeting at Regis College, Industrial Relations meeting at Boston College, a joint religious workshop at Rivier College and the regional Congress of the year in Boston.

They also collected a spiritual bouquet for the Holy Father, serviced campus clubs through the NFCCS commissions, and established contact with the U.V.M. Newman Club.

The delegates for 1952-53 were:

Joseph McCann- Senior Delegate

John Carroll- Junior Delegate

Ted Dimauro- Delegate

James Johnson- Delegate

Mr. Garrett Associate Editor

Mr. Thomas A. Garrett, St. Michael's College registrar, has been named an associate editor of "College and University."

RECENT APPOINTMENT

Mr. Garrett was notified of his new responsibility while at the annual convention of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers this past week at Minneapolis. Garrett has contributed to "College and University," his most recent article being "Registration Without Perspiration." The article detailed St. Michael's procedure for abolishing long registration lines.

Garrett was also appointed a member of the committee on high school-college relations.

A BUSY MAN

Registrar at St. Michael's since 1943, Garrett has also been coordinator of veterans affairs since 1944. A member of the American Association of University Professors, Garrett is on the executive board of Delta Epsilon Sigma, the national Catholic honor society.

He is a graduate of St. Michael's College who earned his master of arts degree at New York State College for Teachers in Albany. He did graduate work at St. Louis University, the University of Ottawa and New York University.

"LIVING ROSARY" CLOSES MISSIONETTE

On Friday, May 1, in observance of May Day, Saint Michael's College sponsored the living rosary, under the direction of the Sodalists. This observance is a sort of counteraction to the Communist celebration, as well as a fitting opening for the month dedicated to Mary.

The Living Rosary was originally to have taken place at the athletic field, but the weather made it necessary to hold it at Austin Hall.

Miss Dorothy Leary of Trinity College, wearing the traditional white wedding gown, was escorted to the stage by Mr. Harry Brusa. Ten young ladies also from Trinity attended Miss Leary in the crowning ceremony. Miss Leary and Mr. Brusa are the senior members of the two sodalities.

"SALVE REGINA"

The choir, under the direction of Mr. John Donoghue, sang the traditional hymns for the crowning ceremony and following the rosary, the choir sang the "Salve Regina" and the recessional.

Also in the musical department, the AFROTC band, under the direction of Sgt. Alexander Stone, played several selections and opened the ceremony with the Star Spangled Banner.

Fr. Daniel P. Lyons gave the sermon, reminding those present of the need for Mary's intercession. Fr. Lyons also led the participants in the rosary.

Those who helped in giving this tribute to Mary were congratulated for their excellent work.

Harry Brusa was the general chairman. He was assisted by Pete Spillane and Cleveland Williams. Paul Kelly had charge of the lighting. The Sodalists, under the direction of Father Gopaul, were heartily commended.

SIX CONVERTS CLIMAX YEAR'S INSTRUCTIONS

"Go ye therefore... baptizing in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Following these words of Our Divine Lord, as did the apostles, Father Boucher recently received into the Church six area residents who through the grace of God willed themselves to ask for instruction in Catholic Doctrine last fall.

Beginning in October, Father Boucher instructed his class twice weekly giving individual attention to each and everyone of the class of 25 members. The program Father Boucher used was based on a series of instructions: "On The Way To Eternal Life." More specifically these instructions presented a modern, easy-flowing, practical everyday explanation of the Creed, Commandments, Sacraments, and method of worship. A library containing instruction books and supplementary pamphlets suitable to the needs of the class was set up and is presently being built up by the Mission Crusade.

Two of the class were baptized at Christmas, six more just recently and in the near future still more of this class are to receive the Sacrament of Baptism. The converts received their first Holy Communion in Senior Hall Chapel.

A new class has been started and is in its second week of instruction. The Mission Crusade is financially backing this series of instruction also, but money isn't the only factor needed in instructing converts.

Prayers and many of them are needed. It is through praying for these classes that students here at St. Michael's may share in the joy and happiness that comes to a Priest who is doing his job well.

Kingston at that time to see if his influence at Fort Ethan Allen could aid in obtaining a "name" band at a reasonable price. However, since all bookings at the Fort come directly from Washington, this plan fell through.

PICKS UP SPEED

On October 30 the following were named to committees, subject to later revision. Publicity, John Crotty, to be assisted by Al Monahan, Bob Leahy and Bill Wigmore; Decorations, Louie Siclari; Tickets, Marty Walsh; Band, John Donahue; Chaperones, Jim McDonald.

On November 4, Mr. Burt Orr, a booking agent (for bands, not horses) was here at St. Michael's. Any number of bands were available, but the prohibitive price was a determining factor in the decision not to have a "name" outfit.

On the next evening, Jim McDonald offered the first concrete plan for the weekend, and it was at this meeting that the Champlain Country Club was proposed as the site for the Prom.

Once again the idea of procuring the "Ti" came up, and this time received more favorable attention.

"BARBARY COASTERS"

On January 30, the definite dates for the weekend were chosen as May 8, 9, 10. At that time it was decided to contact the outstanding college orchestras in the vicinity and from this Dartmouth's well-known Barbary Coast group was chosen.

MONEY MATTERS

After much controversy a tentative budget was submitted to the Dean of Men and on February 18, his approval was gained for the use of the Ticonderoga for Saturday night. A trip was made to the Country Club and it was found to be suitable for the Prom.

THE PICNIC

On February 26, the idea of a Saturday afternoon picnic came into being and for the first time the long-range plans began to bear fruit. It was decided that $6.50 would be the price for the blanket ticket.

A VALUABLE GIFT

A little later he will come to believe there may be at least "something in what the teacher says." Then the day may come when he wakes up to discover that he no longer has any faith at all.

Rev. Avery R. Dulles S.J., Harvard educated son of the present Sec. of State and himself a convert to Catholicism has written: "In the secular college, the student will gain only a fragmentary outlook on the world, since he will be taught by professors who are confused and who disagree among themselves as to the basic truths and values."

NO OTHER GIFT

But perhaps the most striking endorsement and defense of a Catholic college education comes from one of our greatest living Americans, J. Edgar Hoover, head of the F.B.I. and himself a non-Catholic.

He has stated the case pointedly: "No gift of Rockefeller or Carnegie Foundations, or any other Christian denomination can equal the gift presented to the American people by the Catholic Church. It has nearly 11,000 schools and nearly three million pupils who are taught by 95,000 patriotic teachers. Not a single atheistic teacher is among them; not a single non-Christian or non-American principle taught."

dust he'd send up and if he goes in standing up, who's going to be able to see around him to first base."

Champlain's starting hurler, Jake Kramer, did a fine job in the early innings. He had the S.M.C. batters stymied and had scattered one run and three hits over six frames.....Casperson was using a 34 Louisville and Charlebois a 33 and both went hitless their first three attempts. Then they switched sticks and accounted for three runs and three hits between them.....Giltrop has no such troubles, he brings his own bat to the games.... Bill DiJulio gets credit for the fielding gem of the game. With the sacks loaded and two out, he went far to his right and made a diving catch of Dick Martin's bid for an extra base blow.....The temptation to bunt on "Big John" was apparently too great for Champlain. They tried eight times but only two were successful. One was called out for interference when Sully's peg to first bounced off his back. Bob Bolster handled another and Sully took care of the rest himself.

AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

AIRCRAFT OBSERVER

The Brains of the Team

Teamwork can work miracles. In a football game the man who sparks these miracles is the quarterback. He's the man who calls the signals. There's a man who calls the signals for an Air Force flying team, too!

They call him an Aircraft Observer.

Do YOU have what it takes to become an Aircraft Observer?

It isn't easy. It's tough. You have to be a MAN to qualify as an Aircraft Observer. But when you are one, brother, you're SOMEBODY! The success or failure of a mission involving over a million dollars worth of flight equipment depends on you.

THE AIRCRAFT OBSERVER IS THE SOMEBODY WHO:

As Bombardment Officer, is number one man on a bombing run, the man who controls the plane in the target area!

As Navigation Officer, is the pilot's guiding hand on every flight!

As Radar Officer, is master of a new science and operator of the device that sees beyond human sight!

As Aircraft Performance Engineer Officer, is the one who "keeps the plane flying", the man who knows his plane inside and out, who keeps it fit for the skies and sees that it stays there!

If YOU can accept a challenge like this, you'll take your place beside the best—you'll find your future in the clouds!

TO BE QUALIFIED you must be single, a citizen, between 19 and 26½ years old, have had at least 2 years of college and be in tip top physical shape. If this describes you, then YOU, too, can qualify. Today!

HERE'S WHAT YOU'LL GET! The world's best training. Good food and plenty of it. Uniforms, flight clothes, equipment. Medical and dental care. Free insurance. Flight training in Uncle Sam's greatest aircraft.

AND THEN, AFTER GRADUATION, you'll win your silver wings, and earn more than $5000 a year as an Air Force Lieutenant. You'll enjoy an adventurous, exciting career with a hand-picked crew of real men. You'll be THE BRAINS OF THE TEAM, A TRIPLE THREAT MAN . . . as a Bombardment Officer, as a Navigation Officer, as a Radar Officer, as an Aircraft Performance Engineer.

QUIS UT DEUS ?
